Professor Chen Wen-Chen Memorial Foundation

P. O. Box 136

Kingston, NJ 08528

Dear Friends:

The Professor Chen Wen-Chen Memorial Foundation will be offering four scholarships in 2010 for students with the following qualifications:

1. Exceptional academic achievements
2. Concern or participate in Taiwanese social-political movements, or had significant contribution to the Taiwanese community in North America.
3. Currently studying in the universities or colleges in North America

The scholarship is to honor Professor Chen Wen-Chen, who sacrificed his life for pursuing democracy and freedom in Taiwan. Additionally, the scholarship is to encourage students to continue Professor Chen's efforts to promote Taiwanese-North American cultural exchange.

The scholarship is $1,500 for each awardee. Deadline for application is July 15, 2010. To apply, please provide the following documents: (1) A photo copy of official transcript (2) Two recommendation letters, one from the university faculty, one from the Taiwanese community; (3) Application form (upon request or download from our web site www.CWCMF.net). Please limit other additional information to two pages.

Please visit our web site (<http://www.CWCMF.net>) for application forms and other information. Send the application documents (or request for application forms) to:
